

2nd Localism and Neighbourhood Planning Conference

27th November 2014

Delivering Neighbourhood Planning

Focusing on the delivery of effective neighbourhood planning on the ground, learning from the experiences of a range of community neighbourhood planners, as well as other professionals working in the field.

- Getting people involved in the neighbourhood planning process
- Preparing neighbourhood plans
- Carrying out effective consultations
- Using the full range of community rights
- Affordable housing
- Incorporating sustainability into neighbourhood planning

Keynote Speaker

Brandon Lewis MP
Minister of State for Housing and Planning

We are pleased to be welcoming a range of speakers with practical experience of neighbourhood planning, including representatives from:

- Department for Communities and Local Government
- Campaign to Protect Rural England
- Country Land and Business Association
- Broadland Housing Group
- RTPI Planning Aid

The full-day conference, to include lunch and refreshments will cost £95.00.

For more information:
localism.conference@rau.ac.uk
To book: <http://shop.rac.ac.uk/>

Royal Agricultural University
Cirencester

(Concessions available based on the size and nature of your organisation)