

2nd Localism and Neighbourhood Planning Conference

27th November 2014
9.00 to 4.30pm, Boutflour Hall

Outline of the day

Welcoming remarks, Professor Chris Gaskell, Principal, Royal Agricultural University

Keynote speech – Brandon Lewis MP Minister DCLG

Michael Newey – Chief Executive, Broadland Housing Group
Affordable housing in the era of localism and neighbourhood planning

Fenella Collins – Head of Planning, Country Land and Business Association
The planning regime and neighbourhood plan framework

Mick Duggan – Department for Communities and Local Government
Neighbourhood planning: three years on from the Localism Act

Elin Tattersall – Gloucestershire Rural Community Council
Neighbourhood planning, getting people involved in the process

Matt Thomson – Head of Planning, Campaign to Protect Rural England
Localism, a CPRE perspective

Roger Smith – Planning Director, Savills
Working with landowners on neighbourhood planning

Liz Beth – Neighbourhood Planning Advisor, Planning Aid England
Supporting communities preparing neighbourhood plans

Ali Parsa – Dean of School of Real Estate and Land Management, RAU
Summary of the day

Full day conference - £95.00

For more information:

localism.conference@rau.ac.uk

To book: <http://shop.rac.ac.uk/>

(Concessions available based on the size and nature of your organisation)

Keynote Speaker

Brandon Lewis MP
Minister of State for Housing and Planning

Neighbourhood planning workshops, panel discussions and opportunities for informal networking over refreshments and lunch.

 iNets South West Environmental

Royal Agricultural University
Cirencester 